

News from CCP

A new semester is on the move and we are looking forward to see you in Centre for Cultural Psychology. Here an update on upcoming events:

Dr. Jaan Valsiner awarded the APA Outstanding International Psychologist Award 2020

Professor Jaan Valsiner has been awarded the prestigious “Outstanding International Psychologist Award” by the American Psychology Association: <https://www.ccp.aau.dk/news/show/dr.-jaan-valsiner-awarded-the-apa-outstanding-international-psychologist-award-2020.cid480213>. To celebrate Jaan’s achievement we would like to invite colleagues and interested students to a talk with Jaan on the subject of the future of Cultural Psychology, followed by a small reception. The event will take place on October 09, 2020 at 14.30-17.00 in room 11.09 at Nordkraft. For further details, please contact Morten Kure Kattenhøj: mkat@hum.aau.dk

Prof. Jaan Valsiner gives the following APA Division 52 Webinar – feel free to join!

DIVISION 52 WEBINAR

This Webinar is open to the public and will be followed by an opportunity to ask the presenter questions

The Pandemic Seminar Series:
MAKING UNCERTAINTY AND LIVING WITH IT:
WHAT THEORETICAL PSYCHOLOGY CAN LEARN FROM THE CULTURAL HISTORY OF EPIDEMICS?

Speaker: Jaan Valsiner

Organizer(s): Luca Tateo and Pina Marsico
Moderator: Falu Rami, Ph.D.
Host: Karen Brown, Ph.D.

Jaan Valsiner is a cultural psychologist and the founding editor of the Sage journal, Culture & Psychology. He was the Niels Bohr Professor of Cultural Psychology at Aalborg University, Denmark where he continues his research on cultural psychology, in combination with collaboration with University of Luxembourg and Sigmund Freud Privatuniversität Wien in Austria and in Berlin. He has published and edited more than 40 books, including: The guided mind (Cambridge, Ma.: Harvard University Press, 1998), Culture in minds and societies (New Delhi: Sage, 2007), Invitation to Cultural Psychology (London: Sage, 2014) and Ornamented Lives (Charlotte, NC: Information Age Publishers, 2018). He has been awarded the Alexander von Humboldt Prize in Germany, and the Hans-Kilian-Preis for his interdisciplinary work on human development. He was a recipient of a Senior Fulbright Lecturing Award in Brazil and in 2020 the APA Division 52 Award for Outstanding Psychologist outside of USA. He has been a visiting professor in Brazil, Japan, Australia, Estonia, Germany, Italy, Luxembourg, United Kingdom, and the Netherlands.

Date: September 29, 2020, 11:00 AM EDT, 10:00 AM CDT, 9:00 AM MDT, 8:00 AM PDT, 5:00 PM CEST

Link: <https://div52.net/index.php/activities/webinars>

Div52 Members, D52 Affiliates, D52 Student Members	Free
Non-Div52 Members	Free
Non-D52 Students	Free
1 CE Credit (additional)	$15

APA APPROVED PROVIDER

Cancellation Policy: No Refunds will be provided except when Division 52 Webinar Committee cancels the webinar. This program, when attended in its entirety, is available for 3 continuing education credits. The Department of Clinical Psychology at Seattle Pacific University (SPU) is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education credits for psychologists. The Department of Clinical Psychology at Seattle Pacific University maintains responsibility for this program and its content. There is no known commercial support for this program.

Learning Objectives (The webinar fits levels of introductory and intermediate.):

1. To discuss the panic of fear created by the Pandemic
2. To describe the psychological coping mechanisms of wanting to control pandemic versus escaping
3. To discuss theoretical frameworks to provide understanding of the pandemic

REGISTER FOR WEBINARS: www.div52.net/webinars

Friday Symposia

Our Friday symposia will be starting up again in September. They will take place at Nordkraft 11.15 on the last Friday of each month (see website for further details):

<https://www.ccp.aau.dk/activities/>). Information will be put up on the website, and be circulated with the departmental newsletter. For further details, please contact Bo Allesøe: boallesoe@hum.aau.dk.

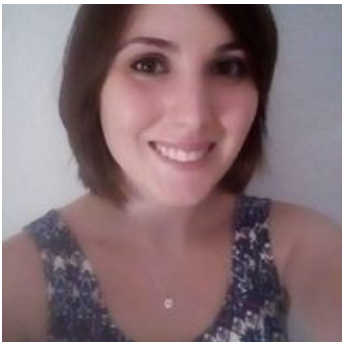

Innovation in Psychology Lectures

Due to Covid-19 this year's lecture Innovation in Psychology (previously the Niels Bohr lecture) are being re-scheduled for August 23-24, 2021. The theme will still be 'Human Development in Social Context'. Charis Psaltis will give the keynote address on 'Genetic Social Psychology: A Once and Future Discipline,' integrating micro-, onto- and socio-genesis using the Cyprus conflict as a case study. For further details, please contact Brady Wagoner: wagoner@hum.aau.dk

Winter School "Culture, Psychology & Qualitative Research"

The CCP, in collaboration with the Sigmund Freud University Berlin, the Sigmund Freud University Vienna and the Free University of Berlin, will be launching an annual Winter School "Culture, Psychology & Qualitative Research" that will rotate between the collaborating universities. The first Winter School will be organized by Carolin Demuth (AAU) and Meike Watzlawik (SFU Berlin) on the topic "Data collection beyond the interview". The first Winter School is scheduled to take place in February 2021 and be held digitally. Future Winter Schools are planned to be held on site. More details will follow soon. Please check our website for updates. For further details, please contact Carolin Demuth: cdemuth@hum.aau.dk

Visitors

Please welcome María Lojo, who is a doctoral candidate at the Department of Experimental Psychology, University of Seville. She is writing her PhD thesis on the construction of memories and identities in the context of Franco's dictatorship in Spain. While in Aalborg, she will be working on this project together with Brady Wagoner.

We hope you will be able to join this semester's activities within the CCP. For more information and regular updates, please check our website: <https://www.ccp.aau.dk/>

On behalf of the centre,

Carolin, Bo & Brady
<https://www.ccp.aau.dk/>

New Publications

For recent publications see:

<https://www.ccp.aau.dk/publications/>